Subject
Workshop concerning the implementation of CAM and CMP on the BBL interconnector

Dear Stakeholder,

As announced in our consultation letter on the implementation proposals for the Network Code Regulation on Capacity Allocation Mechanisms (CAM) and the Congestion Management Procedures (CMP), we hereby invite you to register for the workshop on the 29th of April 2015 on Schiphol Airport. The exact location will be announced after the registration has closed.

This workshop will commence at 13.00h and end at 17.00h, local time. A lunch will be served.

Participants from BBL Company, Gas Transport Services, National Grid Gas as well as Prisma will be present.

If you would like to participate in this workshop we kindly ask you to register on Thursday 23 April at the latest by sending an e-mail to consultations@bblcompany.com, stating company name and the contact details of the person(s) who'd like to attend. Also if you have particular questions you want to address, please let us know as well.

We are looking forward to welcome you on the 29th of April.

Yours faithfully,
